

ENWHP Membership Application Form (Annex 2 to the ENWHP Membership Agreement)

Section 1 – General Information concerning ENWHP membership

Membership Categories

ENWHP distinguishes amongst two (2) types of memberships:

A. Members;

Membership is open to organisations and individuals registered or domiciled in a country within the WHO European Region, with members being able to participate in and access all activities of the Network as detailed in page 2. Membership includes eligibility to be nominated by ENWHP to act as a National Contact Office for ENWHP, with one member being identified per country (or region). Eligibility to act as National Contact Office will require sufficient technical and resource capacity to fulfil a range of obligations associated with being a national reference point for ENWHP. It should be noted that members from non-EU/EEA countries may be unable to directly participate in EU sponsored activities as is the case for International Members (points one and two).

B. International Members.

International Membership is open to organisations and individuals coming from countries outside of Europe. International members are very much welcomed and will be able to participate in and access all aspects of the work of the Network other than in certain specific areas where there may be limitations:

- Involvement in projects funded i.e. by the European Union (hence their eligibility for receiving EU funding) is contingent to the peculiarities of the Program under which the respective project is being funded and are not typically open to non-EU/EEA countries.
- Their involvement in processes such as policy development is contingent to the requirements issued by the respective formal authority driving the process; there are Directorates General that allow non-EU/EEA experts' opinions while others don't.
- ENWHP campaigns and training development will typically be focused within a European context, though full access will be provided to materials which could then be adapted for use elsewhere.

Types of Members

Any organisation or individual can become a member of ENWHP, and a number of different membership types have been considered as possible. These are:

- Public sector (it includes inter alia Government ministries-central or regional, Public sector bodies, Research Institutes, Universities, etc.);
- Private sector (it includes inter alia large companies, SMEs, microenterprises etc.);
- NGOs / third sector.

– Individuals.

Please let us know the type of your organisation in the application form in Section 2 – General Information concerning the applicant organisation.

Membership Requirements

The requirements for organizations wishing to become a member of ENWHP are the following:

- 1) To submit a signed ENWHP Membership Form and a copy of the Applicant's Statutes; The processing of this signed ENWHP Membership Form shall be performed by the ENWHP Secretariat: it will take up to 30 calendar days and its approval needs to be agreed by the Board of ENWHP. Once the approval is granted then the Secretariat shall issue an Agreement of Cooperation. Should the approval be granted the ENWHP Secretariat will also confirm which membership category of your organisation.
- 2) To sign an Agreement of Cooperation.

- 3) To pay the annual membership (See page 3 for current rates);
- 4) To formally endorse the ENWHP 1997 Luxembourg Declaration (rev.2017) by placing an announcement on your organisation's website.

All ENWHP members, regardless they type of membership, are requested to share and actively promote the objectives and aims of the ENWHP, whose ultimate purpose is to advance the workplace health promotion domain.

Membership Rates

Membership of ENWHP is currently FREE for new applicants. You will not be charged membership fees during the first year, but if you want to continue your membership after this time you will have to pay the annual fee as set out in the table below.

Normally, becoming and remaining a member of ENWHP will require payment of an annual membership that will be invoiced for payment at the beginning of each calendar year. Membership will lapse should payment not be made by 31st March of the membership year. Lapsed members will be required to re-apply for membership.

ENWHP membership is charged according to the type of institution you are representing.
